

La Alpujarra Mountain Riding Holiday & Granada

---

Itinerary

Day One

Arrive at Malaga or Granada airport and head to the hilltop town of Boubion in The Alpujarra Mountains. During your holiday you will stay in the comfortable Casa la Sevillana located in the small village of Boubion. The village is quiet and charming and has some great little restaurants and small bars, perfect for a relaxing evening drinking wine and nibbling on tapas.

Day Two

This short break has been especially designed with the beginner or novice rider in mind. The aim of the three day programme is to give you a solid introduction to the basics of riding, handling and caring for your horse. Each day you will have a lesson in the morning with additional instruction explaining the handling and care of your horse. A picnic lunch is included then in the afternoon you will be riding out from the stables into the beautiful Alpujarra Mountains.

Day Three

Today the riding plan will be the same as yesterday. The diversity of bridle-paths and forest tracks that lead from the stables allows us three days to explore many of the more inaccessible ravines and valleys of this mountainous region. From the high summer pastures and streams fed by the snow melt of the Mulhacen, down to the whitewashed villages in the valleys.

Day Four

Today is the last riding day. The routes for the afternoon rides are planned so that we ride over totally different terrain each day where possible. One day we follow small paths high into the mountains, with spectacular views on a clear day of the Mediterranean on one hand and the highest peaks on the other. On other days we take slightly lower routes where the many forest tracks allow for a faster pace for those who are feeling more confident.

Day Five - Option fly home or spend a day in Granada

Today it will be time to leave the mountains and drive down to the spectacular city of Granada. According to many, Granada is the most beautiful city in Andalucia displaying a fusion of both Western and Eastern cultures. As you wander through its charming streets your body is infused with the unequivocal atmosphere of its historic past. Gazing up from the city you will be stunned by one of the most marvelous architectural feats of the world; the Alhambra Palace. Today you will enjoy a guided tour of this spectacular palace.
