

Midweek Beach Ride, Wales

Itinerary

Sunday

Arrive and settle into your accommodation. You will be staying in a 4 star B&B that has been carefully restored and decorated to an extremely high standard. This beautiful period property offers medieval vaulted ceilings and many original details and it sits within its own walled gardens overlooking the ancient church of St Madoc. All the bedrooms are en suite and have lovely views, comfortable beds, digital radios and a variety of books. Tonight you may like to head to one of the local pubs to enjoy dinner.

Monday

After breakfast you will be heading for the stables. The stables have a wide variety of horses and ponies so they can cater for all abilities from young children who are riding for the first time, through to those who have their own horse. This morning you will be riding in the woodland. This ride takes you into the stables 35 acre private valley. You will be riding on paths that follow the contours of the valley, making it possible to take many different routes and tracks. Some of these cater for the more experienced rider by having small cross-country jumps while the other paths may be taken at a more relaxed pace. After a picnic style lunch you will be heading onto the beautiful beach. On the beach you will split up into smaller groups based on your ability enabling everyone to enjoy the breathtaking scenery whilst riding at their own pace.

Tuesday

After breakfast you will be riding on the beach once more. You will again split up into groups of differing abilities so that everyone can enjoy riding at their own pace. After lunch at the stables you will be riding along tracks in the forest and also in fields high above the beach you rode on earlier in the day. You will be hacking in a sheltered, peaceful area where foxes, badgers, rabbits and pheasants roam freely and can sometimes be spotted. This evening you may like to sample another coastal pub or restaurant close-by.

Wednesday

After breakfast you will be going for a longer ride. The longer ride will take you into Druidstone Haven. You will be hacking through wooded valley's and along a coastal track which takes you through lush pastureland overlooking the inlets of Nolton and Druidston - giving a bird's eye view over St.Bride's Bay. Out of high season you will be able to ride on the beaches of Newgale and Broad Haven. These sandy beaches offer up to 2 miles of sand when the tide is at its lowest. As well as riding over the stable's land, there is a local bridleway and plenty of common land to enable you to take in the impressive coastal scenery.

Today your afternoon is free. You may like to travel to Oakwood Theme Park if you want to take a ride on the wild side or Pembroke Castle, a fascinating castle with stunning exhibitions to captivate all ages.

Thursday

Today you will be departing but before you leave Pembrokeshire you will be riding the stables wonderfully trained horses for one last time on the beach. This morning you will be split into groups of differing abilities and you will either be walking, trotting or cantering along the beach. This afternoon you may like to visit Pemberton's Chocolate Farm in Llanboidy, Carmarthenshire. It is Britain's only chocolate farm and it is located in converted farm buildings where you can see a team of chocolatiers producing a range of mouth-watering truffles and fudges.

Prices

The package price of £445 includes –

- 4 nights accommodation on B&B basis
- 3 lunches
- 6 riding opportunities
- Single supplement of £25 per night

Please note due to the changing tides in Pembrokeshire the ride times may alter to the above itinerary depending on what time of year you have booked your horse riding holiday for.
